

NCNW 2010 Fall Retreat Registration Form

The New Culture Fall Retreat offers an opportunity for personal growth and the chance to create community and connections with kindred spirits. The Retreat seeks to build a sustainable culture through personal honesty, compassion, and intimacy.

Due to size limitations, the camp is limited to the first 100 registered campers. Early registration ends on June 30th, after which the cost goes up.

Please note that accommodations are camping oriented, so you will need to provide your own sleeping pad, bags, tent if you wish, and so on. For more information, see our web site, at <http://ncnw.nfnc.org>

You must be over 18 years of age to join us, and you will need to present valid ID when registering at camp. Alas, if you do not have valid ID at registration, we cannot admit you to the camp, even if you are registered. Entrance to camp requires that you sign a camp waiver and present ID at the same time. Please come prepared.

All hands: This is a participatory event in which we expect all campers to help prepare meals, clean up, and help create the camp in various ways. Most of this participation happens in the kitchen. Some people tell us that cooking and cleaning was one of the best parts of camp, with bonding and good company. If you haven't done it before, don't worry – it's fun.
